The Otaku Lexicon

Note that some terms may have multiple meanings or more detailed definitions. For simplicity purposes, this page will give simple definitions that will hold within the context of this story. Most of the terms can be wiki-ed if you want more info. These terms are used primarily by Otakus. The +1 takes into account the cover page.

Otaku — Someone who's obsessively interested in anime, manga and video games to the point of lacking a social life.

Riajū — A person who leads a fulfilling real life. Can be taken to be the opposite of Otaku.

Sweet(LOL) — Essentially a transliteration of the internet slang, スイーツ（笑）. It might be used without the (LOL). Sweet(LOL) essentially refers to a girl who is heavily influenced by mass media, such as magazines, TV, ads, etc. that are targeted towards women. (LOL) is often added, especially on sites like 2ch.

Gal — 'Gal' used in Japanese does not just mean 'girl', but specifically refers to a young girl (and also to a sub-culture comprised of such girls) who dresses in a fashionable, glamorous style, often involving the use of unnatural beauty enhancements such as wigs, fake nails, fake eyelashes, colored contacts, heavy makeup, etc.

Fujoshi p6+1 — A Fujoshi refers to a girl who's into anime, manga, or games that contain romantic content between guys (also known as BL - Boys' Love).
